A Valuable Prescription.

Editor Morrison, of Worthington,
Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2025 Cottage Grove, Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six botles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. THE DISTRICT ATTORNEYSHIP.

The hardest fight in this campaign will be over the district attorneyship. A fusion has been effected, by which C. H. Dalrymple, Populist nominee, has withdrawn, and Sam L. Hayden of Salem is the only candidate in the field against Mr. Carson.

It is a position coveted by all lawvers who engage in politics and like too many offices, is costing the people too much money. Hence the unusual strife for it. In an unusual manner the battle for an office of a judicial character has been carried onto the

THE JOURNAL has tried to keep the controversy out of its columns. But have heretofore been rejected on both sides. The first appears today and Mr. Carson will no doubt make his answer to it. THE JOURNAL waives all responsibility for articles that appear for and against candidates.

Live Political Meeting.

This is simply a funny item on a political meeting without any polities in it. The candidates of Marion county who are making a joint canvass were billed to speak at Detroit Monday evening. The train, owing to the wreck at Kings, was several hours late, reached Detroit at 16 o'elock at night. A crowd was waitng. Mr. John Butterworth was hauled from the mail car and made chairman. Then the fun began. It was bot from the start. Rev. H. L. had it up hill and down and it looked like a Cuban war. Then a Democrat spoke five minutes, where he was allowed fifteen, and gave another Democrat the extra ten. The right was disputed, and Chairman Butterworth decided in favor of the Democrat, though a Republican himself. Wednesday, May 27th—St. Paul 10 Jap Minto shaking his fists under the chairman's nose in a live manner. Albany Democrat.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Under the above caption, the morning Daily Herald of Albany, May 14, 1896, dished the undersigned up in the following style:

"Seth Hammer, a would-be ward boss of Salem, is in the city trying to tell the people of Albany how to vote from the original, which was written on the district attorneyship. Ham- by Carson with a pen, and the whole mer is a Populist for the time being is in Carson's handwrite, except Plum and is working for Hayden & Dalrymple. Hayden for prosecuting attorney publican rack all these years without for the third judicial district, and the reason that Hammer is working for try to force immigrants from Toronto, the election of Hayden is, that he knows Hayden to be an honest, honorable and entirely competent young man, who will be a credit to the position and a saving clause to the taxpayer, and on the other hand, he knows John A. Carson to be a dishonest immigrant, as aforesaid, who gave (Carson), only was in this country to live. fill his purse, and then he was going back to God's country to live.

> In support of my statement, that gaid Carson is dishonest, in the profession. I relate the following facts:

A party by the name of John H. Plum, whose wife was in the insane asylum in the state of Illinois, thought he was entitled to a divorce. Barkley and his principal opponent He spoke to one or two attorneys, who respect their profession, and was informed that he could not get a divorce from an insane person. Plum was finally steered to this Carson. He took the case and commenced the suit; to get service of summons by publica tion, Plum had to make a certain affidavit, which he did.

When the case was called in court there was no answer and default, was taken and decree entered. In a reasonable time Mr. Plnm called on Carson to settle for services rendered Carson informed Mr. Plum that his fee was $300. Mr. Plum thought it too much and refused to pay and left the office. Soon after he was met by Mr. William A. Hamilton, who in course of conversation warmly abused Carson. Mr. Plum went home, returning in a reasonable time to try and settle with Carson. The same matter was before him, finally arbitration was considered and in casting around for the referee Carson suggested William A. Hamilton, which suited Mr. Plum on account of the pointed remarks madelby Hamilton. So Hamilton was selected. Following is a true copy of the agreement and five days in the business:

"This agreement made, this 23rd day of June, A. D., 1890, at the city of gon, between John H. Plum, of the Warm wave will cross the west of first part, and John A. Carson of the parties hereby appoint William A. Hamilton referee to settle and determine the amount due by said Plum rendered in securing a decree of divorce, and I, the said John A.
